

SportTech IQ (STI) Agreement

1. STI provides free service to Organization for 30 days.
2. Organization to collect & email information to STI (per Process page) for at least 1 full Challenge for at least half of registered players or students within 30 days. Any or all players or students may use a user-name or nickname.
3. Organization agrees with STI Terms & Privacy Policy on STI website.
4. Organization & its registered players or students will have STI website access.
5. Organization to share collected data only with STI. STI owns all player data. STI will not share data with any other party.
6. Neither party shall be liable to the other regarding any exchanged information.
7. Neither party has an obligation to purchase anything from the other party.
8. Organization represents its staff, registered players or students, and their parents or guardians. None of these parties may file a claim against STI, except for physical harm caused by gross negligence or willful misconduct. STI may not file a claim against Club or its constituents, except for physical harm is caused by gross negligence or willful misconduct.
9. STI is not responsible for field conditions, weather, or other factors that may affect safety or performance.
10. Neither party may assign to another party any of its responsibilities except with the prior written consent of the other party.
11. Parties understand & voluntarily agree to all the entire Agreement.

Name:	Brian Moure	_____
Name of Organization:	SportTech IQ	_____
Email:	brian.moure1@gmail.com	_____
Date:	_____	_____
Signature	_____	_____